

How Will Disenfranchised Peoples Adapt to Climate Change?

Two-Day CONFERENCE, at York University

Date & Locations:
April 16th,
Founders Assembly
Hall
April 17th,
The Underground

Open to All

Visit Website:
[www.iris.yorku.ca/
conference](http://www.iris.yorku.ca/conference)

Strengthening Leadership for the Ecojustice Movement:

Community activists and activist scientists from Brazil, India, South Africa, and Arctic Canada will share stories of local vulnerabilities to climate change, and discuss strategies for addressing inequities in climate change causation, mitigation, funding, and global/local politics.

faculty of environmental studies

York International

& IRIS

Institute for Research and Innovation in Sustainability

IPY
International Polar Year

Environment
Canada Environnement
Canada

YORK
UNIVERSITÉ UNIVERSITY
redefine THE POSSIBLE.